

Our Services

Dry Needling

Dry Needling uses thin, non-medicated needles inserted into muscles or connective tissues that are problem areas. This helps to reduce pain and improve movements. It is also a powerful modality to treat soft tissue dysfunction.

Dry needling uses filament needles to inoculate minor lesions into soft tissues to activate the healing process, resulting in the restoration of healthy physiology.